

Guidelines for REVIEWS

Length of reviews: min.: 3 pages – max.: 7 pages; best: 5 pages (=3500 words)

Please note: our publisher accepts only doc files

(1) Beginning (one paragraph; one page max.)

- maybe few words about the author
- short summary of the book's main ideas and aims
- locating book in current or historical debate and in author's oeuvre
- Please provide information about the reviewed book in header to your review as in:

Alexander Bird

Nature's Metaphysics: Laws and Properties

Oxford/New York: Oxford University Press, 2007

ISBN 978-0-19-922701-3; $70.00, £29.00, € 23,99 (hardback)

231 pages

(2) Main part (2-3 pages)

- summary (for example chapter by chapter)
- an account of the ideas and aims
- critical judgment / appraisal of main arguments
- comment on language, clarity, conciseness, etc.

(3) End (one paragraph; one page max.)

- summary of reviewer's critique and praise
- does the author achieve his or her goals?
- is his / her contribution valuable for the general debate?
- recommended readers: undergrads, graduate students, researchers?
- please sign your review with:

Academic Title, Name, Affiliation

Address

Further info (bibliographies, footnotes, etc.) at:

<https://brill.com/view/journals/hpla/hpla-overview.xml?contents=ArtSub>